Troublesome Clauses 2.0	An online database where FDP members can enter and access information about terms & conditions placed in research grants and contracts that are difficult to accept. The database tracks the negotiation of the clause, the resolution and any alternate language that was agreed upon. FDP members can use this tool to see how specific agencies have negotiated specific clauses previously and use that information in their negotiations.	Research Admin/Contracts	https://thefdp.org/default/committees/research-administration/contracts/
Other Transaction Authorities	The OTA working group will use the information gathered to identify key questions related to the use and management of OTAs and prepare a white paper that can be used by FDP membership as a resource in their efforts to utilize OTAs most effectively while mitigating administrative burden. Subaward Templates, FAQ's & Guidance	The subaward form is an ongoing project that has produced several subaward templates for institutions to use when processing subawards. The objective of the project is the adoption of a common agreement that all parties can use without changing the language. This reduces the time needed to review each agreement and streamlines the subaward process. Additional model agreements have been developed for use with foreign subrecipients, clinical trials and with contract prime awards.
